

RUDOLF STEINER SCHOOL NEW YORK CITY

Title: Biology Teacher, Upper School

Status: Part Time

Start Date: Immediate

Rudolf Steiner School seeks a colleague to teach one or more biology courses in the Upper School.

Strong candidates will have upper school teaching experience, ideally in a Waldorf school. Our school includes experienced mentor-teachers and in-house professional development opportunities; this position could be the right fit for an enthusiastic early-career teacher. As members of the Upper School faculty, teachers have the opportunity to work collaboratively with one another on a daily basis and in regular departmental, area, and all-school meetings.

Rudolf Steiner School ("Steiner"), an independent nursery to 12 school and the first Waldorf School in North America, is located on Manhattan's Upper East Side. The school is committed to building a healthy, inclusive community that reflects the diversity of NYC. We value an interest in diversity and multi-cultural competence. Steiner is accredited by the Association of Waldorf Schools of North America (AWSNA) and the New York State Association of Independent Schools (NYSAIS).

DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES include:

- All aspects of preparing lessons, teaching, and assessing student work
- Regular communication with students, colleagues, and parents

QUALIFICATIONS

The successful candidate will demonstrate:

- Completion of Bachelor's degree: Master's preferred
- Interest in and appreciation for Waldorf Education
- Versatility, enthusiasm, punctuality, creativity

To be considered for this position, please send a letter of interest, a resume, and contact information for three references to kandrade@steiner.edu. We will be accepting applications until the position is filled.
